

Week 1

When is the last time you had to sacrifice doing something you love to do?

Can you think of a time someone showed you genuine, sacrificial care — not just words, but action? What did that mean to you?

Why do moments where someone truly shows up for us tend to stay with us longer than other memories?

Read John 10:11–15

What stands out to you about how Jesus defines Himself in this passage?

Why do you think Jesus chose the image of a shepherd and sheep instead of something stronger or more impressive?

What does it reveal about Jesus' character that He willingly laid down His life for His sheep?

As you think about your week ahead, what's one tangible way you could reflect Jesus' sacrificial love to someone else?
