

Week 2- How the Grinch Stole Christmas

Who are your closest friends and what makes you so close?

What's the risk of only spending time with people who think or act like you?

Cindy Lou chose to believe there was more to the Grinch than what other people saw. What are some things that may cause us to misjudge someone?

Why do you think hurt people tend to push other people away?

Have you ever tried to trust someone and then got let down? How did you handle it?

Read Luke 6:32-36

Who's one person you've been avoiding or writing off? Why is it hard for you to love that person?

What would change in your life if you led with curiosity instead of assumptions?

Cindy Lou was willing to risk being misunderstood to reach someone who others ignored. What would it look like for you to do that for someone this week?
